* Divisions: O=open, J = junior/young rider, A=amateur

Fees: $30 per class, $10 for additional divisions, $30 office fee for each horse/rider team. There is no drug fee, non-member fee or bridle tag deposit. Post entries will be accepted with management approval and a $25 late fee. There will be a $15 fee for all changes made after the close date and a $40 fee for checks that do not clear the bank. Horses on the grounds for schooling must pay an office fee and wear a bridle tag.

Entries: Use the RMDS entry form. A copy of your RMDS horse/rider/owner card must be enclosed for scores to count in qualifying for RMDS Championships and for year-end awards. To compete as an amateur, you must include a copy of your 2019 USEF amateur card. Out-of-state entries need to enclose a negative Coggins test drawn in 2020. Proof of horse vaccination for equine influenza virus and equine herpes virus within six months of show is required. Make your check payable to "Centaur Rising". You may e-mail your entry form (see top of prize list) and may pay fees by credit card. Management reserves the right to make changes, combine classes or refuse any entry.

Refunds: If you cancel before the closing date, all fees will be refunded with the exception of the office fee. After the closing date, class fees will be refunded only if the ride(s) can be filled. During the competition day, no refund of any kind will be made for any reason. The office fee is never refundable. Refunds for stabling after the closing date will be made only if the stall is filled. There will be no refunds for cancellations due to acts of nature beyond management control.

Times: Unofficial times will be posted at www.CentaurRising.org (see the Events page) by the Friday before each show. Please re-check the official times after you get to the show. Ride times will not be mailed. Results will be posted at the same place after the show.

Awards: Ribbons will be awarded to sixth place for each test in each division. Ribbons for the highest score in each division will be awarded for each show as well as medals in each division for the highest score of the season.

Parking: Please note that parking on the grounds is limited.

Stabling: Permanent 10'x10' stalls with wooden doors and matted flooring will be available for $30 overnight, $25 for the entire day. Bedding will be provided.

Directions: From the junction of C-470 and Hwy 285 in SW metro Denver, drive 20 miles into the mountains on Highway 285. Go through Aspen Park and Conifer. Continue 1/4 mile past the trout ponds at Shaffers Crossing. Turn right on Parker Avenue. Drive 1/2 mile. Anchorage Farm is on the left. Links to MapQuest can be found on each page of our website. Use the above address if you consult MapQuest directly.

Arenas: The show will be held in a 20x60m outdoor arena. The warm-up arena will be in a 50'x120' indoor arena. Footing is organic material and sand. Sorry but no lunging area will be available during the show. Lunging will be permitted in the indoor warm-up arena up to 60 minutes before the start of the show. The show will be held in a beautiful mountain setting, 8300' elevation, cool with little wind, great scenery!

Lodging: Overnight lodging is available on the grounds at www.AnchorageFarm.com/rooms.html. You may make your reservations on line, but may need to do so well in advance of open and close dates.

Food: Food will not be available on the grounds. Vet/Farrier: On call numbers will be posted in the show office. Medic: TBA.

Dogs: No dogs on grounds.

Our shows are held for the benefit of www.CentaurRising.org, a non-profit 501-c-3 organization.

Thank you for supporting our show!!
